GREENWICH, CT, March 29, 2022 – Oceans cover about 70% of Earth’s surface, and yet over 80% are unexplored. This month Bruce Presents speakers Stockton and Wendy Rush will discuss their hopes to change that. Bruce Presents: Titanic Expedition - A Conversation with OceanGate's Founders features an evening with Stockton and Wendy Rush of OceanGate Inc. OceanGate Expeditions is a worldwide leader in human exploration of the deep ocean, and their venture is focused on providing crewed submersible services to researchers and scientists.

When Rush founded OceanGate his goal was to expand humanity's understanding of the ocean and increase ocean awareness. Now his mission is to make deep-sea exploration more accessible for everyone, from scientists who need critical information to those who are simply passionate about discovery.

Suzanne Lio, Managing Director of the Bruce Museum and Bruce Presents Co-Producer says “I am immensely looking forward to the never-before-seen footage that OceanGate plans to share with us during Bruce Presents. There is so much potential with this project, not only to spread awareness about our ocean ecosystems, but also for the amazing video and photography content that OceanGate provides.”
